MISCELLANEOUS COMMISSIONS

OVERVIEW

Miscellaneous Commissions refer to agencies whose missions extend beyond a single department. In some instances, an interstate commission operates in conjunction with executive departments in several other states, with each member exercising equal power in the decision process. Such compacts are necessary, as an action taken by one state frequently has ramifications in another state. Intrastate commissions address statewide issues.

The fiscal 2001 budget for Miscellaneous Commissions totals $1.3 million. Services are provided in two distinct areas: science and technical programs and governmental review and oversight. Science and technical programs include the Delaware River Basin Commission and the Interstate Sanitation Commission. Governmental review and oversight refers to the Council On Local Mandates.

The Delaware River Basin Commission coordinates activities and sponsors research on water resources in conjunction with federal, State, municipal and private agencies. The member states are New Jersey, New York, Delaware and Pennsylvania. The fiscal 2001 recommendation of $787,000 provides for New Jersey's contribution to the Commission's total operating budget.

The Interstate Sanitation Commission plans and coordinates activities designed to abate water pollution in waterways common to New Jersey, New York and Connecticut. The fiscal 2001 recommendation of $388,000 reflects New Jersey's contribution to the Commission's total operating budget.

The Council On Local Mandates resolves disputes and issues rulings on whether a statute, rule, or regulation constitutes an impermissible, unfunded State mandate. The fiscal 2001 recommendation is $125,000 which, in conjunction with prior year carryforward funds, is sufficient to support continuing services.

9130. INTERSTATE SANITATION COMMISSION

OBJECTIVES

1. To restore to usefulness, within a reasonable time and in an economical manner, areas of the District which are presently blighted from water pollution.
2. To plan and coordinate activities to control and prevent air pollution in the region through the development of compatible standards and implementation plans.

PROGRAM CLASSIFICATIONS

03. Interstate Sanitation Commission. The Interstate Sanitation Commission is a tri-state agency created by the states of New Jersey, New York and Connecticut through enabling legislation and a tri-state compact (RS 32:18-1 et seq. and RS 32:19- 1 et seq.) The Interstate Sanitation Commission District extends approximately from Sandy Hook on the New Jersey coast to include all of New York Harbor, north on the Hudson River to the northerly boundaries of Westchester and Rockland counties, easterly into Long Island Sound to the New Haven, Connecticut shore, to Port Jefferson on the north shore of Long Island, and along the south shore of Long Island extending easterly to Fire Island Inlet. The Commission makes rules, regulations and orders for the abatement of water pollution and may resort to the courts for enforcement. The Commission's program plan for water pollution abatement is designed to provide assistance in an effective coordinated approach to regional problems. The Commission is also the official planning and coordinating agency for the New Jersey-New York-Connecticut air quality control region, though it does not have air pollution abatement enforcement powers. The Commission conducts studies; undertakes research, testing and development; gathers and disseminates data to other public and private organizations or agencies; does sampling to track sources of air pollutants and refers complaints to an appropriate agency or agencies of the states, along with data necessary to take corrective action.
